

Session 1 – 2nd October 2022

We live in Two Realms

This session will introduce the course and some basic assumptions. This session focuses on the 'supernatural realms' and the realities of them. It will give a 'language' for the rest of the course.

Session 2 – 9th October 2022

Our Original Design and Who we are in Christ

This session will speak into God's original design for Creation, and for us, as well as our identity in Christ.

Session 3 – 16th October 2022

Rebellion and Repentance

This session will look at sinful rebellion and how to recognise it in our lives.

Session 4 – 23rd October 2022

The battle for our Mind

This session will look into more depth at what stops us living in our original identity.

We'll take a break on the 30th October for half term

Session 5 – 6th November 2022

Hearing God's Voice

This session will look at how we hear God speak – how we can discern his voice and how to practice this daily.

Session 6 – 13th November 2022

Authority 1

This session will look at God's authority and its purpose alongside authority and rebellion in general, and what it means to be 'under' Authority.

Session 7 – 20th November 2022

Authority 2

This session will look at our authority, what it means to be 'in authority' as followers of Christ.

Session 8 – 27th November 2022

What's next?

This session will conclude the course and give space to consider what we have learned; we will consider how we use the principle of Living Free in our daily lives. It will also deal with the question 'what if' – to help us understand disappointment if and when it comes.
